

Hamilton Olympic Club MTA Track Meet
Mohawk Sports Park
June 28, 2014

The day started with bright sunshine and the fresh air of the east mountain. Out-of-town people started to arrive at the track around 8am in order to get a good spot for their team tents. The first 'work crew' of volunteers arrived shortly afterwards, along with the not-so-good news. The people who were to do the electronic timing were unable to attend. There was no timing system, no numbers and no meet packages for the clubs. Luckily, though, the lists of attendees and the lists of athletes in each event had been forwarded to the boss and he had started the printing presses rolling at an early hour. The situation was explained to the clubs. Everyone was sympathetic and realized that there was little more that could be done. Field events would go ahead as planned as they were not influenced by the lack of timing equipment. Meanwhile, numbers were found; stopwatches were dusted; thumbs and fingers were exercised; glasses were cleaned and the finish line crew were heard counting to eight moments after each 'bang' of the starter's pistol.

Meet director, Mike Smith, and volunteer coordinator, Steve Smith, would like to extend their thanks to the HOC volunteers who stepped up to make sure that the day ran as smoothly as possible.

Registration: Thanks to Susan Hewitt and Monika Di Cesare who collected waivers and money as the various teams arrived.

Finish line: Rich Gelder made sure everyone was in the correct lane and event at the start of each race. At the end, Paul Kolb did a super job of matching the athletes' numbers and names and getting them paired with the correct times from Heidi and Kristen Davidson, Patti Moore, Greg and Eryn Reader with friend SarahAnn, Michael Justasson, and Andrea Purnell.

Long jump: Bernard, Bernard Jr. and Marissa DuBois, Trish and Britanny Stenekes, Frank Malavolta, Tara Williams, Molly Giannone and Brooke Bottos did super work digging and raking pits, putting tapes, calling names, recording numbers and waiting for people to return from other events so they could have another chance to better their previous best.

High jump: Danielle Giliauskas learned how to run this event and she made sure that her helpers, Anton Knigavko, Monica Binotto, Jack Mosquite and Brent Smyth, were able to put the bar at the correct height and figure out how to call faults.

Shot put and javelin: The Di Cesare family – Alyssa, Ang and Monika – were able to do all the required work (measure, watch for faults, record results) to get these events completed smoothly and fairly.

Results and Awards: Chloe Hewitt and Jenna Smith were fantastic in their little oven. They took the results from the various heats and combined them to show the actual finishing order of the competitors. Then, they gave out the medals to the first three finishers of each event, plus ribbons for fourth to eighth places.

Concession Booth: although we wouldn't run a full array of food, drinks, freezies and snack foods were available for sale. Vanessa DuBois, Rachel Barich and Rachel Langelaan did a super job of keeping everyone well hydrated, especially with Mikayla Hewitt taking water out to all the volunteers.
