

Durham Dragons Legion
MTA Meet
March 8, 2014
York University (TTFC), Toronto

The MTA athletes finally had the chance to compete at another one of their own meets. This was the Durham Dragons Legion Meet held at York University in Toronto. Several of the younger people were attending their first meet as a member of the Club and enjoyed the experience quite a bit.

Mitchell Litman, competing in the atom boys' category, had two top ten finishes as he came eighth in the 400m (74.33sec) and seventh in the 800m (2:45.26). In the girls' atom division, Anna Knigavko ran 35.64sec for the 200m, then came eighth in the 400m with her 80.28sec clocking.

Competing in the senior boys' division, Alec Purnell had a personal best with his second place finish in the 400m (55.74sec), then raced to the win in the 800m (2:14.16). Keeping pace with him was Drew Ruigrok who took eighth place in the 400m (60.35sec) and ninth in the 800m (2:29.65), before going on to record a big PB in the long jump as he placed second with a leap of 5.06m. Also racing in the 800m was Finn Mills who raced a PB of 2:22.39 to take sixth place. Sprinter Noah Boin worked hard in the 60m dash to score a big PB of 8.31sec with his fourth place finish, then came seventh in the 200m with a time of 27.84sec.

The senior girls had an excellent day with Meaghan Boatsmith getting a second place finish in the 3kg shot put with her toss of 8.16m, while taking fifth place in the 800m (2:36.81) Emily Martindale also had a second place finish – in the high jump (1.10m), plus ran a PB in the 800m with her eleventh place time of 2:39.28. Meanwhile, Maddie Sinnamon won the long jump event with her distance of 4.75m, as well as competing in the 60m (8.72sec) and 200m (28.93sec). Meagan Stager set a personal best time in the 800m with her 2:46.72 clocking.
